

NON-DISCLOSURE AND WORK-FOR-HIRE AGREEMENT

Effective Date: _____

Between:

Disclosing Party (Client): Philip Samonte, The Prime Strategy

Receiving Party (Contractor/VA): Kisha Parubrub

1. PURPOSE

The Contractor is being engaged to build and configure a private deal network system ("the Project") for the Client. In connection with this work, the Client will share proprietary business systems, designs, workflows, and strategies. This Agreement protects that information.

2. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to:

- Business system design, structure, and workflows
 - Branding, naming, terminology, and concepts related to the Project
 - CRM configuration, automations, forms, and pipelines built for the Client
 - Pricing, fee structures, and business model details
 - Member lists, contact data, and deal information
 - Any materials, files, or documents shared by the Client

3. CONTRACTOR'S OBLIGATIONS

The Contractor agrees to:

- Keep all Confidential Information strictly private
 - Not disclose, share, or discuss the Project with any third party
 - Not use Confidential Information for any purpose outside this engagement
 - Not build a substantially similar system for any competing client in the real estate investing, creative financing, or lead network space for 24 months from the date of this Agreement
 - Delete or return all Client materials upon request or project completion

4. WORK-FOR-HIRE

All work product created by the Contractor under this engagement — including but not limited to CRM builds, workflows, automations, forms, documents, and configurations — is considered work-for-hire and is the sole and exclusive property of the Client, Philip Samonte / The Prime Strategy. The Contractor retains no rights, ownership, or license to any deliverable produced for this project.

5. THIRD-PARTY SPECIALISTS

The Contractor may engage third-party specialists (including GHL specialists) to assist with this project. The Contractor is fully responsible for ensuring that any such third party is made aware of and agrees to the confidentiality obligations in this Agreement before any Client information is shared with them. The Contractor shall obtain a signed confidentiality agreement from any third party prior to disclosure.

6. EXCEPTIONS

These obligations do not apply to information that:

- Was already publicly known before disclosure
 - Becomes public through no fault of the Contractor
 - Was independently developed by the Contractor without use of Client's information

7. TERM

This Agreement is effective from the date signed and remains in force for 3 years, or indefinitely with respect to any trade secrets.

8. REMEDIES

The Contractor acknowledges that a breach of this Agreement would cause irreparable harm to the Client. The Client shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief and/or monetary damages without the requirement of posting a bond.

9. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Massachusetts.
